

Preparing for an Interview

Posted in: Vocational

Preparing for your interview is important - the more prepared you are, the more confident you will be during the interview. Don't be nervous. You are starting with a big advantage. There is something about your resume they like. They want to talk to you. They want to know you really are the right choice (taken from sasknetwork.ca)

Click on the following link for points to consider when preparing for a job interview:

<http://www.sasknetwork.ca/html/JobSeekers/lookingforwork/interviewmain.htm#top>